

Meet the Neighbors: Downtown Entertainment

Downtown Albany offers a variety of entertainment for a fun evening out.

1st Friday in Historic Downtown Albany
Throughout Downtown Albany
Varies by the business. Many are 5-7 pm

Each month, businesses stay open late for 1st Friday in Historic Downtown Albany. Many retail shops offer specials, refreshments and live entertainment. Gallery Calapooia hosts a public Artist's Reception each month. (see story page 4)

Calapooia Brewing
140 Hill St. NE • (541) 928-1931
Sun-Wed 11:30 am-9 pm, Th-Sat 'til 10 pm

Known for live entertainment, house brews and classic pub food, Calapooia Brewing's husband and wife co-owners Caitlin Prueitt and Chris Neumann provide their customers with a diverse array of entertainment. Enjoy live music on most Friday evenings. Sunday Blues Jam is every week from 3-6 pm, and there is a Darts Tournament on 1st Friday. Dam Right Drag Night presents multiple events each year.

The brewery/distillery hosts community fundraisers and other events throughout the year, so check their social media for updates.

The Garage
229 3rd Ave SW • (541) 704-0312
Mon-Th 3-9 pm, Fri & Sat 12-11 pm, Sun 10 am-9 pm

Owner Danny Gerard and his staff are ready to pour your choice of cocktails or 46 craft brews on tap including beer, wine and cider to enjoy as you watch the your favorite teams on six screens (one outside for summer). Every Monday is Trivia Night, followed by Open Mic Comedy on the first Monday of the Month. Soul of Wit presents Stand Up Comedy every Thursday, bringing regional and national talent to the stage in Downtown Albany.

Greyhound Tavern
220 2nd Ave. SW
Grand Opening Feb 22, 2024

The long-anticipated Greyhound Tavern will open later this month. Look for arcade games, woodfire pizza and live entertainment from the producers of the highly successful Albany Downtown Block Party.

Stop in to meet co-owners Michelle & Kody Roth and Tyler Porter. Follow Greyhound Tavern on social media for opening details and upcoming entertainment.

Albany Civic Theater
111 First Ave. W • (541) 928-4603
Ticketed performances at 2:30 pm and 7:30 pm

Now in its 73rd season, Albany Civic Theater is an all-volunteer, non-profit community theater "that entertains and enriches audiences through a variety of productions that enhance the cultural life of our community."

From comedies and musicals to dramas and historic themes, ACT offers a wide selection of high-quality performances to entertain theatergoers throughout the year. Tickets are available at albanycivic.org.

The Albany Pix Theatre
231 2nd Ave. SW • (541) 926-PIXX
Open 7 days. Showtimes vary.

The Pix is our pick for the best place to enjoy first-run movies in Albany. They offer reasonable ticket prices and concessions served up by co-owners Rod and Denise Bigner and their friendly staff. You'll find popcorn with real butter, homemade frozen bananas and more. Food choices include a cheeseburger, El Jefe sandwich and pesto quesadilla. Beverages include beer, cider and wine. The cafe is open and welcoming to anyone during movie hours. For show times and tickets, visit www.albanypix.com.

No Rails Ale House
115 1st Ave. E • (541) 497-2137
Sun, Tue-Thu 3-9 pm, Fri & Sat 'til 10 pm

No Rails Ale House owner James Van Deusen offers guests 50 taps of craft beer and cider plus 500+ selections in the bottle shop, with many brews you won't find elsewhere in the Mid-valley.

Check out Tuesday Night Trivia where teams of up to six test their knowledge, have some fun and, of course, beer.

Deluxe Brewing
635 Water Ave. E • (541) 928-7699
Mon-Fri 3-9, Sat 12-9, Sun 12-8

Bingo Sundays. Monday night is Acoustic Jam. Tuesday brings Board Game Night. Thursdays is a mixed line up with Karaoke, Music Bingo and Open Mic Night depending on the week. Watch for Dance Parties and other events on their Facebook page.

Volunteer Spotlight: Taylor Roosa

Taylor Roosa is relatively new to the Albany Downtown Association but has made a significant impact already!

Taylor, a Senior Interior Designer at Varitone Architecture, joined the Economic Vitality Committee in October 2022 and immediately jumped in to help plan our Building & Business Owner Mixers.

When Chair Stephanie Gutierrez moved out of town in May, Taylor stepped into the co-chair role with Bob Moore. She took the reins of Economic Vitality's Downtown Connections events. In July, the committee brought building and business owners together with City Partners to learn about permits and historical review. In November, she brought together a panel of local Design Professionals. She joined our board of directors in June 2023.

Taylor was key in planning and hosting the 2023 Excellence in Downtown Albany Awards held in September.

Thank you, Taylor, for your contributions to the ADA and our Downtown business community.

Parking Update

In mid-January, parking consultants Walker Consulting presented stakeholders initial data from their daylong in-person survey from early December. Some adjustments will be made to take in account restaurants on 2nd Avenue that were closed or under construction at the time of the survey.

Each month, ParkWise awards a month of free parking to a leased space or employee permit holder.

Our February parking winner is...

Albany Explore Highlights Pioneering Black Women

To learn about some remarkable Albany women, download Albany Visitor Association's Albany Explorer app and check out the "Albany Pioneering Women in History" tour. February is Black History Month, so we're sharing the stories of two Black women from Downtown Albany.

Amanda Garner Johnson

Amanda Garner Johnson was a slave given to Lydia Corum as a wedding present when she married Anderson Deckard. In 1853, the Deckards decided to come to Oregon and offered Amanda her freedom if she wanted to remain in Missouri. She instead elected to travel over the Oregon Trail with the family. While 20 years of slavery in Missouri may have limited Amanda Johnson's sense of self-determination, her relationship with the Deckards, their interdependence on one another, and their lifelong connection provided a different kind of empowerment that sustained her throughout her life in the West. She lived near Downtown Albany at 7th and Elm Street SW.

Bessie Wyatt Hale

Pioneer business woman Bessie Wyatt Hale, born in 1899, was the first Black woman to own a business here in Albany. Bessie, a former housekeeper, and her chauffeur husband, Rufus Hale, moved to Albany in 1931. Rufus worked as a mechanic until they opened the De Luxe Shoeshine Parlor on 1st Avenue in 1939, where the Venetian Theatre now stands.
